

SOCIALLY ENGAGED BUDDHISM

The Buddhist Council of Greater St. Louis presents an afternoon of thought-provoking talks and panel discussions about the application of Buddhist teachings to social and economical issues we faced with everyday.

SUNDAY, MARCH 22, 2015, 1 – 3:30 pm
“World Water Day”

Fo Guang Shan St. Louis Buddhist Center
3109 Smiley Road
Bridgeton, MO 63044

WATER: Social concern & Responsibility

SCHEDULE:

1:00-1:05 Introduction: Leonora Kham

1:05- 3:00 Claire L. Schosser, Member, Watkins Creek Stream Team
The Troubled Life of an Urban Stream

Dr. Rosan Yoshida, Director, Missouri Zen Center
Water Issue & Global Ethic

Ven. Jue Huang., Director, Fo Guang Shan St. Louis Buddhist Center
Water in Buddhism

3:00-3:30 Panel discussion, Q&A, conclusion

For more information, call (314) 517-0468

<http://www.buddhistcouncilstl.net>

OPEN TO PUBLIC

FREE OF CHARGE

(Children activity will be provided)